BRAHMACHARI SHUBAMRITA CHAITANYA

has lived with Mata Amritanandamayi (Amma) as a monastic disciple since 1989 and regularly gives lectures and seminars on stress management and meditation throughout Europe, Africa, India and the Middle East. Drawing on more than 20 years of experience as one of Amma's closest disciples and personal translators, Br. Shubamrita shares his understanding of the Eastern spiritual traditions in practical and easily understandable terms. Br. Shubamrita is also known as a gifted singer/songwriter. During his programme he will give a talk on the practical application of timeless spiritual principles and practices in day-to-day life. He will also sing devotional songs and lead a brief guided meditation.

MATA AMRITANANDAMAYI (AMMA)

Mata Amritanandamayi, known throughout the world as Amma, or Mother, is one of the world's most respected humanitarians and spiritual leaders. Her entire life has been dedicated to alleviating the pain of the poor and those suffering physically and emotionally. Amma inspires, uplifts and transforms through her physical embrace, her spiritual wisdom and her humanitarian activities. Her boundless love and compassion crosses all barriers of nationality, culture and religion. For her extraordinary contributions to world peace, Amma received the Gandhi King Award for Nonviolence in 2002. Her charitable projects, now known collectively worldwide as Embracing the World®, are reaching out to millions around the globe. In India, Amma's organization has been given Special Consultative Status to the United Nations.
